Nasdaq Commodities Welcomes Respect Energy

Oslo, April 4, 2022 – Nasdaq Commodities is pleased to announce that Respect Energy S.A. has joined Nasdaq's European Commodities market.

Respect Energy is a Polish-based company specializing in electricity trading. They are the only company in Poland that obtains and sells energy exclusively from renewable sources. Respect Energy are guided by respect for nature and people. They are one of the largest independent entities on the electricity market in Poland and cooperate with a group of more than 450 Energy Producers.

"Joining Nasdaq Commodities is a natural next step for Respect Energy's markets expansion and exchange diversification path. We are looking forward to highest quality cooperation, and effective trading opportunities on both explored and unexplored markets," said Sebastian Jabłoński, President of the Management Board of Respect Energy S.A.

"We are excited to welcome Respect Energy to Nasdaq Commodities and look forward to support them in their efforts to promote ecologically sound energy sources," said Georg Aasen, President of Nasdaq Commodities. "As part of the Nasdaq family, we forward to working together with Respect Energy on our joint effort to help investors to make more sustainable choices."

Respect Energy joins Nasdaq Commodities as a Non-Clearing Member (NCM).
